

The user passes all model information to brm

brm calls `make_stancode` and `make_standata`

Model code, data, and additional arguments are passed to rstan

The model is translated to C++, compiled, and fitted in Stan

The fitted model is post-processed within brms

Results can be investigated using various R methods defined on the fitted model object